The border PS members (stationed in Jiríkov (50°59'N - 14°35'E), Rumburk and Sluknov (51°01'N - 14°28'E) are mostly young Slovak soldiers. The border line is not so closely watched by the border guard, and crossing is possible practically everywhere. The local offenders cannot be caught. The system of guarding the border is based on whole nets of locally recruited spies and informants. Smugglers, thieves, and political offenders caught on both sides of the border are not punished, but are forced to work as assistants. PS units have frequent exercises and are concentrated in particular areas as quickly as possible. They set up road blocks and screen every person passing.
